Avoiding Retaliation Claims & Common (But Overlooked) Pitfalls Under the New York Labor Law

Employers in New York continue to face an increasing number of retaliation claims under state and federal law. This presentation will help human resources professionals to identify potentially risky scenarios and to hopefully avoid these retaliation claims. Employers must also remain mindful of several, commonly overlooked pitfalls under the New York Labor Law. Attendees will be provided with a brief overview of these areas of the law and with recommendations on how to help their organizations avoid legal exposure.

Program information has been submitted for approval for SHRM and HRCI credis (TBA)
