Leadership + Employee Engagement = Retention

Companies with Engaged Employees are 202% more productive than companies with disengaged employees. In this interactive program we will consider ways companies can create an environment of Employee Engagement through their leadership team and how this drives employee retention and attracting new talent.

Presented by Diana Wolgemuth

Diana serves as the Director of Professional Development for Dale Carnegie Training of CNY. Diana joined Dale Carnegie in 2009 and has been the recipient of the Silver Award Recipient for four consecutive years 2009 – 2013 and again in 2015 -2018 which is given for Top Sales Growth and consistent independent production of over $300,000.00. Also, she was recognized at the 2016 CNY Sales & Marketing Executives Crystal Ball Awards Ceremony receiving a Sales & Marketing Excellence Award for her contributions to the growth of the Dale Carnegie of CNY franchise. Prior to joining Dale Carnegie, Diana was employed as the Learning & Development Mgr. at Hand Held Products (now known as Honeywell) and was also at Welch Allyn working in sales, international sales, customer service and medical contracts. She is Past President of the Board of Directors for the CNY Chapter of American Society of Training & Development and currently serves as the Executive Chair for the Board of Directors at CNY Works, and is a member of CNY SHRM as well as CNY Sales & Marketing Executives.
